Handling Planning Applications between meetings

Resolved that the Clerk should have delegated powers to decide on planning applications received between meetings. The Clerk would consult the chairman and other appropriate councillors over uncontentious applications. Where the application was contentious then the Clerk would consult the Chairman and a full meeting would be arranged of the whole Council.

Resolved to add to the Standing Orders the following amendment "When the LPA's deadline is prior to the next scheduled meeting of the Council, the Clerk is authorised to determine the Council's observations on uncontentious planning applications following consultation with the Chairman and other appropriate members. "Uncontentious applications" and "other appropriate members" shall be determined by the Clerk in consultation with the Chairman. The decision of the Clerk shall be reported to the next meeting of the Council."
